

There and not there by Michael Amar

Window Gallery | March 20, 2021 to August 20, 2021

The darkness of the shadow deepens and then disappears.
Seeing the form, touching it.
But the thing is not there.
Water running through, like memory,
unable to hold.
In time framed
your presence is felt in absences.
Pigeons speeding in flight overhead, disappear.
The known becomes unknown.
