Anna Elmberg-Wright, Lisa Figge, Sandra Jass, Bruce Kauffman, Rebecca Soudant.

Artists and writers from Kingston were selected to participate in Modern Fuel's installation of Yvette Poorter's mobile forest residency and retreat, "Knock on Wood." From the 9th until the 12th of September the selected participants, Anna Elmberg-Wright, Lisa Figge, Sandra Jass, Bruce Kauffman, and Rebecca Soudant, will reside in the rustic tent surrounded by an ersatz forest located at The Artel Arts Accommodation and Venue at 205 Sydenham Street in downtown Kingston. Documentation of the work produced during their residencies will be included in the "Knock on Woods" archival information on display at Modern Fuel for the duration of "Forest Station."
