

ALLOY: MODERN FUEL'S 17TH ANNUAL JURIED MEMBERS' EXHIBITION

Saturday, June 27, 2015 to Saturday, August 8, 2015

Alloy is Modern Fuel's 17th Annual Juried Members' Exhibition. The curatorial premise for this group exhibition is to reflect the wide-ranging practices of artists in the region and to provide a forum in which to compare patterns emerging in those practices from one year to the next. Guest curated by Fynn Leitch, the artists included in this exhibition include Jane Derby, Frank Desa, Tara Lynn MacDougall, Chris Miner, Ulrich Panzer, Andrew Rabyniuk, Chantal Rousseau, Svetlana Swinimer and Aida Sulcs.

Note: On June 26, starting at 1pm Fynn Leitch will lead one-on-one portfolio reviews with local artists. Please contact the gallery to register. This year's guest curator will be Fynn Leitch, curator of the Art Gallery of Peterborough

Fynn Leitch has an MA in Visual Culture from Queen's University (2006) where her work focused at the intersection of craft and protest. From 2011 - 2014 she led the direction of ARTSPACE, including the development of an onsite Media Lab, and has renewed the centre's commitment to critical writing and publishing. She also works as an advocate for the arts regionally and provincially.
