

WISHES, LIES, AND DREAMS IN THE PROJECT ROOM

In collaboration with Modern Fuel Artist-Run Centre, the Union Gallery presents the work of visiting Thai artist Sarawut Chutiwongpeti, and collaborators, in a multimedia installation focusing on the hybridity of new media and cross-cultural exchange. Chutiwongpeti's exhibition runs concurrently with an exhibition in Union Gallery's Main Space, Between Spaces, featuring the work of Kim Armstrong and Monique Baena-Tan. A reception and artists' talk will take place on December 5th from 6 to 8 pm. Sarawut Chutiwongpeti graduated from the Department of Fine and Applied Arts at Chulalongkorn University in 1996. He has traveled extensively as a visiting artist/researcher and has exhibited at numerous sites including the Banff Centre for the Arts (Canada), the ImaginAsia Project, the Smithsonian Institution, the ZKM Project, the Trondheim Electronic Arts Centre, and the Fukuoka Asian Art Museum. Chutiwongpeti is in Kingston on a residency hosted by the Modern Fuel ARC. Union Gallery 101 University Ave., 1st floor Stauffer Library, Queen's University Kingston, ON K7L 5C4 Gallery Hours: Tues-Fri 11-5pm / Sat 11-4:30pm Contact: Jocelyn Purdie, Director Kate Yüksel, Program Assistant www.uniongallery.queensu.ca phone: 613-533-3171 ugallery@queensu.ca